

Suit Filed to Condemn Land at Millwood

TEXARKANA (Special) — A suit to condemn 567.13 acres of Hempstead County land needed for construction and operation of Millwood Dam has been filed in Arkansas federal court here.

The owners of the land include two Hope men who have been prominently identified with the Southwest Arkansas Water District, which was formed after the initiation of the Millwood Dam project and has the contract for water rights in the reservoir. The men are George W. Peck, president of the water district and Vincent W. Foster, chairman of the planning committee for the June 17 dedication ceremony.

Other owners listed in the government's notice of condemnation are Robert La Grone, J. I. Liebong, Dorsey A. McRae III, Bruce B. McRae and Albert Graves, along with their wives, all of Hope, and C. A. Pruden and Mrs. Pruden of Brownsville, Texas. Also listed as an owner is the Union Planters National Bank.

The condemnation suit is the second to be filed by U.S. Attorney Charles Conway in connection with the Millwood project. The first, involving land in Little River County, was filed early this year.

The government has estimated just compensation at $15,172.

Vincent Foster made the following statement:

"My business is the sale of real estate regardless of the location and normally I know all of the particulars of the transaction. However, I am not aware of the 'so-called offer' by the unknown government employee of $13 per acre above the sales price of the lands sold in 1958 as referred to in Mr. Louis Graves' editorial in the Nashville News.

"Although I can only speak for myself, as Mr. George Peck is not in the state, in my opinion if the federal employee referred to by Mr. Louis Graves in his editorial would accompany Mr. Graves to Hope with a check for this amount, the matter could probably be settled without delay.

"It also might be interesting to know what prices have been paid to other landowners in the area, known or unknown. I would like to suggest that Mr. Graves of the Nashville News publish the prices of each tract on which the government has completed negotiations to purchase, showing full purchase price of land, timber and improvements, if any.

"I am sure that if he is able to get information from the federal employee in the case of the lands he has referred to that this information ought to be available as well."

Dairy Month Meeting Is Called Here

June is Dairy Month and to promote the industry in Hempstead County, Arthur Wilson, chairman of the dairy committee of the Hempstead County Farm Bureau, has announced a meeting for all dairymen and interested persons Thursday, May 31 at 8 p. m. in the Little Courtroom at the Hempstead County Courthouse.

Today, Mr. Wilson attended a luncheon meeting in L.R. of the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation, as he is a member of the state Farm Bureau Commodities committee. At the L.R. luncheon Dr. G. K. Minter, chief staff officer, brucellosis eradication division, U.S. Department of Agriculture, presented Gov. Faubus a certificate designating Arkansas a certified and modified brucellosis free state.

Surplus Food Is Denied Able Bodied

BLITHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Mississippi County welfare director Leroy Richardson said Monday individuals classified as unemployed but able-bodied farm laborers are no longer certified to receive surplus agricultural commodities.

Richardson said when farm work is generally available, persons classified as unemployed laborers would be stricken from the rolls. Month-to-month comparison figures are not available, but it appears that perhaps as many as 15,000 persons have been taken off the rolls this month.

Richardson's announced cut off did not meet the furor that greeted the announcement to remove 18,000 workers from welfare rolls last September. Floyd Irby, Richardson's predecessor, said then he was issuing the order because farmers complained that workers were not willing to pick cotton which was ready for harvest.

Berserk Bus Passenger Shot to Death

CHICAGO (AP) — A passenger aboard a Greyhound bus, who police said went berserk and stabbed the driver and two other men, was fatally shot today by police.

Police said the knife wielder, identified as Milo Savo Brekich, 27, of San Francisco, threatened to kill the 40 passengers in the bus. Two persons were hospitalized suffering from shock.

Policemen Arthur McCauslin and Ross Moran said they fired at Brekich when he refused to obey their orders to drop his knife. The policemen had stopped their squad car when they saw the bus parked in an emergency strip on the Congress Expressway on the city's West Side.

The bus was en route to San Francisco, with several stops along the way.

Wilfred Doss, 41, of Addison, Ill., the driver, told police he stopped the bus to seek police aid after Brekich tried to start a fight with another passenger, William Kokko, 23, of Negaunee, Mich., an Army private.

Police said Brekich sought to force Marine Pfc. Richard Williams, 19, stationed in Santa Ana, Calif., to drive the bus after he had stabbed Doss and the two passengers. Williams managed to leap from the bus.

Doss told police that as he returned to the bus when he was unable to flag down a police car, Brekich stabbed him in the side and neck. Brekich leaped back into the bus, Doss said, and forced Kokko and two other passengers from the bus and attacked two of them with the knife.

Police said Brekich stabbed Donald Paul, 38, of Des Moines, Iowa, a Greyhound bus driver who was a passenger, in the left chest; and slashed Kokko on the left ear. Both were hospitalized. Donald Valencourt, of Spring Lake, Mich., also forced from the bus, was not attacked.

McCauslin and Moran said they succeeded in getting Brekich to leave the bus but that he waved his knife at them as he stepped out. They said Brekich lunged at them and they fired. Brekich was shot twice in the head.

Williams and Ruth Kellogg, 68, of Park Forest, Ill., suffering from shock, were hospitalized.

Holloway Family Reunion Sunday

Self for Sunday, June 3, on the lawn of the E. L. Holloway home in Williamsville is the annual Holloway Family Reunion. Visitors or messages are expected from the members of families over a 10-state area.

This is an organization formed many years ago by descendants of the late R. W. T. Holloway, who came to Arkansas in the early 1880s from Carroll County, Ga., settling first at Rosston and later in the Mount Olive community and still later at Williamsville.

Living sons and daughters are: Henry Holloway, L.R.; E. L. Holloway, Williamsville; Mrs. Lula Paul, Lubbock, Texas; Mrs. Effie Cook, Newnan, Ga.; and Mrs. Ruth Phillips, Lewisville, Texas.

A picnic lunch will be served at noon. Friends of the various members of the family are invited to join the group.

More Showers Dampen Wide Areas of U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More showers dampened broad areas in the eastern half of the nation today in the wake of another outbreak of stormy weather in the mid-continent.

Twisters and tornado winds, with rain and hail, lashed areas in Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Illinois. No injuries were reported but property damage was heavy.

In Oklahoma, tornadoes were sighted near Stillwater and Ingalls, while strong winds with gusts up to 80 m.p.h. swept Shawnee during a severe thunderstorm. Twisters and tornado winds also were reported in the area of Paola, Kan.; Rock Springs, Tex.; Ottumwa, Iowa, and in rural sections of west central and northern Illinois.

More than four inches of rain doused southwestern Iowa while in Kansas the state highway patrol reported 2 1/2 feet of water in the town of Frankfort. Flood warnings were posted for parts of southwestern Iowa, some eastern sections of Kansas and Nebraska and northwest Missouri.

In the Southeast, where the weather was hot and humid, severe thunderstorms rumbled over areas from South Carolina southward into northern Florida. Heavy hail damaged cotton crops in areas of South Carolina.

Brookwood Honors Fifth Graders

Brookwood School's 6th grade presented a play "Closing Day" in honor of the 5th grade Assembly last week.

Diane May acted as teacher, Jimmy Turner gave the welcome talk and a "Lollipop" pantomime was given by Betty Gaines, Gail Hartfield, Mary Holder, Darla James and Brenda McRoy.

Vic Powell read the class will. Brenda McRoy read a theme entitled "Brains." The closing address was by Ellen Turner.

Panic Selling Unreasonable Dillon Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said after a high-level conference with President Kennedy today that "We don't see any reason for panic selling" in the stock market.

Kennedy summoned key economic and financial advisers to the White House to discuss the economy in general as well as the recent sharp drop in stock prices.

Dillon, who came out of the conference to speak briefly with newsmen, said he hopes small investors will realize that the economy is sound.

"It's very sound," Dillon said. Dillon said there was a general agreement among the conferees that the economy will move up the rest of the year.

In addition to Dillon, those conferring with Kennedy included William McC. Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; Budget Director David Bell; Dr. Walter Heller, chairman of the President's Council of economic advisers; Undersecretary of Commerce Edward Gudeman and Manuel F. Cohen of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Final Rites for Mrs. Briggs Today

Funeral services were to be held today at 3 p. m. for Mrs. Nellie Water's Briggs, aged 94, who died Sunday in the home of a daughter here.

The Rev. Clyde Goddard, pastor of the First Christian Church, was in charge of the services at Herndon-Correllius Funeral Chapel with burial in Rose Hill Cemetery. She is survived by one son, Dr. Fred N. Briggs, Davis, Calif. and six daughters, Mrs. Lavenia Patterson, DeSoto, Mo.; Mrs. Mary Carter, Hope; Mrs. Judith Steup, Decatur, Ill.; Mrs. Julia Caldwell, Webster, S.D.; Mrs. Ruth O'Neill, Mitchell, S.D.; Margaret Shively, Dayton, O.; and a sister, Mrs. Carl Cummings Leabannon, Oregon.

No Represented

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board held Monday that employees of Franz Food Products, Green Forest, Ark., are not represented by Local 425 of the Food Handlers Union. The NLRB dismissed a company petition seeking to determine the union's status, saying the union already had declared it did not represent the employees.

Marlar Admits Slaying Man Near Fouke

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Dep. Pros. Atty. John Goodson was expected to file first degree murder charges today against two Arkansians in the slaying of a Louisiana Highway Department employee.

The pair, Jerrall Kenneth Marlar, 32, and Welda Lee Derr, 32, both of Hope, were quoted by police as admitting they shot Thomas O. Bond, whose body was recovered south of Fouke, Ark., Monday, near the Louisiana state line.

Bond had been missing since April 28 when he was last seen at a Bossier City, La., cafe.

Marlar, who served two sentences in the Arkansas state penitentiary for armed robbery, burglary and grand larceny, led officers to Bond's body.

In a signed statement, Marlar admitted shooting Bond with a .22 caliber pistol on a lonely stretch of highway near Fouke. He said he dragged the body into a wooded area 35 feet off the highway.

The ex-convict and Miss Derr were arrested at Roswell, N.M. last week for car theft. Police said the couple admitted the shooting while en route from New Mexico Saturday.

The couple was returned to Bossier City from Roswell and later taken into custody by Arkansas officers.

Police said the couple also was sought for burglarizing a drug store in an unidentified midwest city and taking 125 blank money orders.

Marlar's brother, Don Marlar, a Shreveport taxi cab driver is being held in Caddo Parish (county), La., jail after trying to pass some of the stolen money orders.

He was also questioned in the Bond case, but Bossier officers said he was working at the time of Bond's disappearance.

Says World Needs Great Philosophers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Irwin Jacob Lubbers, president of Hope College at Holland, Mich., told Little Rock University graduates Monday the world needs great philosophers to match the accomplishments of great scientists.

Dr. Lubbers said the present generation faces the problem of adjusting to a great increase in knowledge in the past few years. He said now there is no time for adjustment, "And we have so much to master." LRU graduated 100 seniors Monday night.

Lubbers is president of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and vice president of the National Council of Churches.

Stock Market Slump Continues, Hodges Wants Quick Action

Another 'Black Tuesday', Stock Drops Sharper

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It looked like another "Black Tuesday" on the New York Stock Exchange today as the stock market early this afternoon dived even more sharply than in Monday's decline, the worst since Oct. 28, 1929.

Volume was heavier and losses were greater than at the similar period in Monday's huge sell-off. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 5.10 to 206.10, with industrials off 7.30, rails off 2.30 and utilities off 2.70.

At noon Monday the AP average was down only 3.60 but by the close it was off 13.40.

The ticker tape lagged 41 minutes behind transactions at mid-session when Monday's lag was 35 minutes.

It was a parallel performance with the worst of the 1929 crash except that on a percentage basis it was much milder, since the '29 decline started from a much lower point in the over-all average and the amount of listed stock was only about one-seventh of what it is today.

Volume for the first two hours was a mighty 3.75 million shares. Compared with 1.89 million for Monday's first two hours.

At this rate three days' volume could soar well over 10 million shares and be another history-making session.

Blue chips were clobbered to losses of 3 or 4 points at the start but began to meet support in the afternoon.

"When will we reach bottom?" was the big question. A few stocks posted gains in a heroic stand against the might of sell orders. Chesapeake & Ohio advanced about 2 points, Goodyear more than a point, Campbell Soup about 2.

A T & T, which is held by more shareholders than any other issue, skidded on a delayed opening of 50,000 shares but recovered, showing a fractional gain as the session wore on.

Here and there, it seemed apparent that stocks were finding bottoms—even if temporary. Standard Oil (New Jersey), another blue chip, overcame an initial loss and posted a gain of a full point.

But the general run of stocks showed big losses and some—such as IBM—were so swamped with orders that in early afternoon they still were not being traded.

Down about 4 points or more were such stocks as Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Texas Instruments and Reynolds Tobacco.

Minnesota Mining was down 5 1/4 at 45. A T & T dropped 2 to 98 1/2 on its initial trade, slipped to a low of 98. . . and then rebounded to show a net gain of 10 1/4. General Motors tumbled 26 to 46 on a tremendous trade of 62. . . Continued on Page Two

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market recovered partially late this afternoon from the worst plunge since 1929.

But whether it could press the comeback further was anybody's guess. Heavy trading and an extremely late tape made it difficult to chart the market's progress.

Signs of recovery started popping up shortly after noon and gained momentum as the day wore on.

Late this afternoon badly battered International Business Machines held a $26 gain for the day. American Telephone turned a $2.12 loss into a $6.37 advance. Du Pont added $7.50, Polaroid $4.50, Sears Roebuck $4.12 and Jersey Standard $4.62.

The Dow Jones industrial average had pared its earlier loss by 2 p. m. But still was far in the hole for the day.

Silence on Airliner Explosion

CENTERVILLE, Iowa (AP) — Federal investigators maintained silence today on reports of a link between a murder-suicide pact and a Continental Airlines jet plane crash that claimed 45 lives.

No official would discuss this facet of the case for the record, but there were indications that they were not dismissing this theory.

A briefcase bearing the initials T. G. D., found among the debris after the plane disintegrated in the air, was in custody of Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.

George Van Epps, head of the Civil Aeronautics Board crew investigating the crash, said an explosive might have been carried aboard the plane in the brown leather case.

The CAB said an explosion occurred in a lavatory of the plane shortly after it passed through a line of thunderstorms last Tuesday night.

John S. Leak, of the CAB engineering division, said the blast was a high velocity explosion in a concentrated confined space, rather than a gaseous explosion. He said since no copper wire or other evidence of a bomb timing device was found in the wreckage, a person must have set off the blast.

Authorities have not said, so far, that a bomb caused the disaster. They say only that it was caused by an explosive force inside the plane.

Chicago's American said the initials on the briefcase are the same as those of a passenger who bought a $225,000 insurance policy in Kansas City, then went to Chicago to meet a woman with whom he boarded the plane. Both are reported to have died in the crash.

CAB investigators disclosed they had traveled to Odessa, Tex., to examine the body of Joyce Rush, 23, a stewardess whose body was found near the fuselage.

They have ordered analysis of numerous metal fragments removed from her body and clothing.

Top State Future Farmer Named

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Gary Wallis of Rogers was named the states top future farmer Monday as the 35th annual convention of the Future Farmers of America opened at Arkansas Tech.

Wallis received a $200 award as star farmer and also was named recipient of Arkansas Tech's Harold Snyder scholarship, worth $1,000.

In other state FFA contests, David Elkins of Imboden took first place in public speaking. Paula Melton of Batesville was named state sweetheart and Donald Booth won the talent contest with a piano solo.

Elkins will compete in a tri-state contest at Memphis in July. The two-day session closes today with election of officers and the presentation of 154 Arkansas farmer degrees.

Some 500 FFA students and advisors are attending the convention.

Tax Overhaul Suggested; No Reason Seen

By Frank Cormier

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges recommended today that the administration adopt "positive action rather than words" to help counter the jolt to confidence caused by slumping stock prices.

Hodges told a news conference he believes two steps should be taken:

1. "I would favor an announcement as quickly as possible that we ought to have a tax overhaul," he said. Elaborating, he expressed hope that such an overhaul would include a net reduction in both individual and corporate income taxes.

2. "The Treasury should make a 'very early announcement' of its revision of depreciation schedules, that govern tax writeoffs in business investment in plant and equipment.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said 10 days ago that the depreciation schedules would be forthcoming in late June or early July.

Hodges recommended the department announce the revisions on a piecemeal basis as quickly as they are available, without waiting until the whole package is complete.

Hodges' session with newsmen came on the heels of a high-level White House conference on the market situation.

There was nothing to indicate directly, however, that he was reporting on decisions reached at that discussion. An aide represented Hodges at the White House.

Dillon had emerged from the White House talk to tell newsmen: "We don't see any reason for panic selling" in the stock market.

Key economic and financial advisors to the administration had been summoned to the conference with Kennedy.

Methodist Church Meeting Opens

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The 109th session of the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Church opened here Monday. A commemorative service honoring ministers and widows of ministers who died in the past year was held.

The opening session was presided over by Bishop W. Kenneth Pope, bishop of Arkansas.

Dr. Harold A. Bosley, minister of the Christ Church Methodist, New York City, was to deliver the sermon today.

Reports to be heard today included ones by the district superintendent, the executive secretary of the Area Council, the Board of Education and Hendrix College.

Reactions to Stock Market Dip

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The chairman of the American Stock Exchange, who has seen bad times before, didn't let concern over Monday's stock market drop prevent him from going to bed with a novel at 8:30 p.m.

Edwin Posner, 71, said "These are times—if you'll pardon my being trite—that try men's souls," but added: "We'll live through it, just like we've done before."

"It's one of those situations, old man," he said. "When the public gets a little panicky, prices start dropping out. I'm surprised it went this far. Where it'll go, no one can predict."

Posner, who became chairman and temporary president of the American Exchange early this year to help correct faults found by a federal agency, will step down as president after Labor Day in favor of Edwin Fiering-ton, 37.

"I told Etherington today that I wished he was coming in tomorrow," Posner said, smiling. "He's a young man. Let him wrestle with it for a while."

Posner said Monday was the first time he had really been disturbed by the market's protracted downturn. Asked what he thought would stop the bear market, he said: "Well, we wondered for a long time what would stop the bull market. Something did, but we don't know what."

"This will run its course," he continued. "Someday—maybe tomorrow or next week or next month—it'll come back up again."

Another broker who, like Posner, was in business when the big crash came in 1929, was as slow as Posner to show any outward signs of distress.

Eldon Grimm of Walston and Co. didn't even wait for the delayed tape quotations to reach an end before heading for his home in Connecticut.

He saw the selling as forced by loan calls, lenders requiring more money to cover collateral when stock prices fell. This brought forced selling, he said, to get money to meet the calls, which drove prices lower and generated more loan calls.

"It gets to be a chain reaction thing," he said, "like when you knock down a line of dominoes."

U. S. Nears Open Break With Nosava

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today neared an open break with Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, strong man of the pro-Western royal Laos government, because he left for a goodwill mission to the Philippines at a critical juncture in Laotian affairs.

Officials said Phoumi's action came despite strong warnings to the royal Laos government by Asst. Secretary of State Averell Harriman and Ambassador Winthrop Brown that the United States considers a resumption of conflict talks of major importance. The talks are among leaders of the three Lao factions—Phoumi and rightist Premier Boua Oum, neutralist Prince Souvanna Phoumi and the pro-Communist Prince Souphanouvong, head of the rebel Pathet Lao.

President at 45. Receives $4 Million

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy celebrates his 45th birthday tonight with a quiet family gathering at his country place in Virginia.

The President's birthday brings no relief from pressures of probably the toughest job in the world but does add to his share of the family fortune.

The value and workings of trust funds set up by the President's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, for all the Kennedy brothers and sisters have never been discussed. On the basis of what White House press secretary Pierre Salinger has reported Kennedy is receiving an annual income of $100,000 after taxes from his share.

Estimate the total before taxes at $500,000 and figure the income at 5 per cent and you get a balance of $10 million in the trust fund.

If the President received 25 per cent of the principal at the age of 40 and another 25 per cent at 45, as reported, his 45th birthday is worth between $3 million and $4 million.

Salinger said before the inauguration that Kennedy had converted his assets, other than cash, into federal, state and local bonds. It was understood at the time he had ordered the 45th birthday

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market opened lower today in active trading.

Most early declines were confined to fractions.

Chrysler, however, was off $2.25 at $41. Raytheon declined 13.12 to $25 and Montgomery Ward was off $1.50 at $2.

The first few trades provided an early clue to the big question in investors' minds: Has the market hit bottom after being battered Monday by its worst loss since the crash year of 1929?

The market's long, sharp decline swelled to titanic proportions Monday as trading rocketed to the highest level since Oct. 28, 1929—the day before climax of the crash.

The plunge wiped out an estimated $19.5 billion from the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the fall of The Associated Press 60-stock average. This cut the total value to $301.5 billion from $321 billion at the end of 1961.

The AP average fell 13.40 to 211.20. The Dow Jones average plummeted 34.95 to 576.93. These were the biggest tumbles taken by these averages since Oct. 28, 1929.

Volume of 2.25 million shares swamped the high-speed ticker tape.

The massive selling gnawed deeply into the prices of blue chip stocks—the solid, high-priced issues considered the foundation of the market.

International Business Machines slumped $37.50 to $361. Du Pont $12.50 to $202.50, American Telephone $11 to $100.02, and Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) $5 to $46.

The wave of selling—blamed on a panicked public—was accelerated by calls for more margin. The requirement is for a 70 per cent cash down payment on stock but losses of more than 30 per cent have hit many issues.

American Telephone, the most actively traded issue on 282,000 shares, was particularly hard hit by margin calls. A technically allowed stockholders with rights to buy additional stock to carry the purchases on 25 per cent margin.

What happened to bring on the stock price debacle while the economy is rolling along at a rapid pace?

"The market is unraveling the speculative excesses of the past three or four years when anticipations of values far exceeded the realization of earnings and sales growth," suggested the big brokerage firm, Bache & Co.

"We cannot say that this will be the low because who knows where emotion goes, but on the figures, the statistics, the earnings, the dividends and the general healthy state of the U.S. economy, stocks are rapidly becoming realistic."

Others blamed the great rush to get rid of stocks on a widespread belief that inflation is over. When inflation is in force, investors feel that their money will grow in stocks. When a non-inflationary trend sets in they convert to bonds and savings deposits.

Kennedy plans to leave the White House this evening for the birthday party at Glen Ora, his hunt country estate where Mrs. Kennedy and the two children, Caroline and John Jr., will greet him along with other members of the family.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the President's brother, and wife, Ethel, will be there as will two sisters, Eunice and Jean. Eunice is the wife of Sargent Shriver, head of the Peace Corps, who will also be there, Jean is Mrs. Stephen Smith.

The President plans to remain at Glen Ora over the Memorial Day holiday, returning to the White House Thursday.

At age 45, the youngest president ever elected to the office is described by friends as both feeling fine and happy in his work.

Rider Wants to Return to Arkansas

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP)—One of the 30 Negroes sent here by Southern segregationists has left this summer resort village to look for a job in the Catskill mountains of New York state. Another reverse "freedom rider" says he wants to return to Little Rock, Ark.

Jerome Smallwood, 48, left Monday after a one-day stay, saying he has a brother living in New York who he hopes will help him find a cooking or kitchen job in the Catskills. Smallwood is a native of New York.

William Ricks, 20, also sent here from Little Rock with one-way bus fare paid by the Capital Citizens Council, arrived with three other Negroes Monday and told newsmen shortly afterward that he wants to go back to Arkansas.

One of Monday's arrivals paid his own way from Chicago after hearing from friends that Negroes were being shipped to Hyannis, where jobs and housing supposedly awaited them. He is not considered a reverse "freedom rider."

There are now 41 "riders" here including two women and their 20 children.

Officials have emphasized for the past three weeks that housing is scarce for jobless persons on Cape Cod and employment is temporary at best. Some jobs become available during the tourist season for about three months.

Other arrivals Monday included Eugene Douglas, 30, of Little Rock.

Several hours earlier, the segregationist Capital Citizens Council boarded Eugene Harris, 21, on a bus at Little Rock. He is expected to reach Hyannis Wednesday afternoon.

Harris, an unmarried, jobless handyman, told newsmen in Little Rock before leaving that he preferred going to California rather than Massachusetts.

But Amis Guthridge, who heads the Citizens Council, said the group isn't sending any more riders west at present. The group previously sent one unemployed Negro to Stockton, Calif.

Guthridge said the council had funds for several more riders.

In Hyannis Monday, the Rev. Gilbert Caldwell, a Methodist minister from Pembroke, Mass., visited with town officials saying he wanted to find out for himself what the conditions were in the resort community.

He was on hand to meet Ricks and Douglas as they arrived.

Town officials have expressed concern over finding homes for the large group of arrivals. Presently they are housed at a small community college which they must vacate in two weeks when summer school opens.

The reverse rides were denounced in Little Rock Monday in a resolution adopted by the Greater Little Rock Ministerial Association.

The group called the rides "un-American and un-Christian." The rides are "utterly degrading to our religious and national concepts of the inherent dignity of the human person," the resolution read.

Voters in 3 States Go to the Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voters in Alabama, Kentucky and Florida pick their candidates in primary elections today, with most of the attention focused on Alabama where nine House members are bidding for eight available jobs.

The Alabama and Florida elections are runoffs of undecided contests in May 1 and May 8 primaries. Today's balloting is the only primary in Kentucky.

Alabama, because of a population lag, is entitled to only eight House seats under the 1960 census. The state legislature, unable to agree on redistricting, came up with a stopgap plan under which the nine incumbents, all Democrats, ran in their old districts on May 1. All won.

Alabama Democrats vote today for eight of the nine. Each ballot, to be valid, must contain eight names. The low man loses.

Alabama Democrats, also, will pick a gubernatorial nominee. Former State Judge George C. Wallace led in the first primary but didn't get a majority of the votes.

State Sen. Ryan deGraffenried, who like Wallace favors racial segregation but has adopted a more moderate tone, trailed by 46,000 votes May 1. Since then deGraffenried has picked up the support of former Gov. James Folsom, who ran a close third.

The main battles in Kentucky have been in the 1st and 4th districts.

In the 1st Rep. Frank Stubblefield faces a stiff challenge from the man he defeated in the Democratic primary four years ago, former Rep. Noble Gregory.

In the 4th District, Rep. Frank Chelf is favored but Bailey Root of Newport has waged a vigorous campaign. Part of the district was added to Chelf's when Kentucky lost one of its eight House seats in the 1960 census. Rep. Brent Spence of Newport, who would

Tried to Sell Surplus Army Barracks

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Former Mayor Judson Hout said today Billy Sol Estes of Pecos, Tex., was the third man he contacted trying to sell some surplus barracks from the Blytheville Air Force Base in 1955.

Hout described in an interview arrangements which led to purchase of the barracks by Estes, Robert Clement of Nashville, Tenn., and Russell Brothers.

Estes is under indictment for fraud in Texas and under investigation by federal officials. Clement is the father of former Tennessee Gov. Frank Clement who is seeking reelection.

Hout said he and Troy Dutton of Gregory, Tex., submitted a low bid of $19,000 when the City of Blytheville put the surplus barracks up for sale. The government gave the World War II buildings to the city.

Dutton then became ill, Hout said, and Hout decided to try to sell the barracks in a lot rather than dispose of them individually.

Dutton gave him the names of four persons who might be interested in the deal, Hout said. "I first called H. L. Harvey of Fort Worth, who had been a partner with Dutton in some other businesses," Hout said. "I then called a man—I forget his name—in Lakeland, Fla. Estes was the third man I called. He told me to meet him in Memphis."

Hout said he met Estes in Memphis and they drove in Hout's car to Blytheville where they met Clement. "Clement told me to draw a draft for $37,500 on him, Estes and Russell Brothers to the Third National Bank at Nashville, Tenn."

Hout said he understood the three men then had the barracks cut up and remodeled into houses and sold them in Arkansas and other states. He estimated there were 250-300 houses after the remodeling.

Hout said he had to sell the barracks after Dutton became ill because it was Dutton who was to provide the money to remodel the houses.

The transaction first was reported in a national magazine.

Robert Clement said he had traded his share in the houses to Estes for a part interest in four cotton warehouses at Sudan, Tex.

FAIRLANE GETS THE BEST OF THE BIG ONES!

compare CHEVY II
FAIRLANE GETS THE BEST OF THE COMPACTS!

Our new-size Ford Fairlane is a whole foot shorter on the outside than Chevrolet—for easier parking and maneuvering. Yet Fairlane inside gives you as much front leg room, exactly the same effective front and rear head room, and practically the same trunk space! All with money-saving twice-a-year maintenance, featuring 6,000-mile oil changes*, self-adjusting brakes, 30,000-mile major lubrications, 2-year or 30,000-mile coolant-antifreeze. All this plus greater fuel economy, and solid, quiet-riding, single-unit construction! And Fairlane prices start at $170 less!

*After the first 1,000-mile change Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail prices for Fairlane and Chevrolet Buick 2-door sedans

The only similarity between our Fairlane and the Chevy II is in easy parking and the kind of economy each delivers. Fairlane is nearly 15 inches longer, and styled accordingly. It has 5 1/2 inches longer wheelbase, for a smoother ride. It gives you about 1 1/2 inches more front and rear leg room, 3 1/2 cubic feet more trunk space, almost 400 pounds more steel and muscle. It gives you big car performance—even V-8 power for just a bit extra. All this plus solid single-unit construction, and twice-a-year maintenance, too.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy celebrates his 45th birthday tonight with a quiet family gathering at his country place in Virginia.

The President's birthday brings no relief from pressures of probably the toughest job in the world but does add to his share of the family fortune.

The value and workings of trust funds set up by the President's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, for all the Kennedy brothers and sisters have never been discussed. On the basis of what White House press secretary Pierre Salinger has reported Kennedy is receiving an annual income of $100,000 after taxes from his share.

Estimate the total before taxes at $500,000 and figure the income at 5 per cent and you get a balance of $10 million in the trust fund.

If the President received 25 per cent of the principal at the age of 40 and another 25 per cent at 45, as reported, his 45th birthday is worth between $3 million and $4 million.

Salinger said before the inauguration that Kennedy had converted his assets, other than cash, into federal, state and local bonds. It was understood at the time he had ordered the 45th birthday

Friday Music Club Meets

"Music of Scandinavia" was the theme of the program at the Friday Music Club meeting which Mrs. James Shattfield had in Mrs. B. C. Hyatt's home on May 25. Special guest pianist, Mrs. Geo. Balentine, pastor of the First Baptist Church, told a brief background of Scandinavian music before playing Palmgren's "May Night." He also performed Chopin "Etude in E Major."

After sketching some facts about musicians of Scandinavia, Miss Mary Anita Laseter, the program chairman, introduced the guests, Mrs. Helen Ruffin Marshall and Mrs. J. C. Cantlon, honorary members of the club were also in attendance, as were Mrs. William Rock of L.R., Mrs. Henry Haynes, Mrs. Cecil O'Steen, Mrs. Clyde Hill and Mrs. Webb Laseter Jr.

Mrs. V. R. Herndon Jr. read the list of committee chairmen for the new year. The club gave Mrs. Herndon, the retiring president, a voice of appreciation for her work. Mrs. Clarence Geist told the history of the hymn of the Month "The Dullous Day Now Closes," and sang it for the group accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt.

As the 2 guests arrived they heard beautiful Swedish music furnished by recordings of Dr. Balentine. Pretty flowers were sent at vantage points in the home and strawberry shortcake and coffee were served for refreshments. After the program and business, the entire group joined in singing the Norwegian Dance "My Johana" and "Strange Music" by Grieg. To conclude the meeting the club collect was repeated in unison.

The Shower Springs 4-H Club met May 15 at the Fellowship Hall. The meeting was called to order by the president, Linda Arrington. Duane Arrington gave the devotion, after which Joe Mitchell England led in prayer. Jimmy Howell led the 4-H Pledge.

Labor Board Amends a General Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board ruled 3-2 today it will deny from now on a bargaining rights election bid by either party to a labor contract no matter how long the contract runs.

The decision amends the board's general rule that labor contracts served to bar new bargaining rights election petitions for only two years.

The new rule was made in a case involving the Montgomery Ward & Co., Inc., catalog store at Covington, Ky. The company filed a petition for an election, contending Retail Clerks Local 1099, AFL-CIO, no longer represented a majority of employees.

The petition was filed in the third year of a five-year contract agreement. The board last November had granted the Montgomery Ward election petition, but today's split decision reversed the earlier ruling and established the new rule.

The board majority ruled: "We cannot interpret our contract bar rules in such a way as to permit employers or certified unions to take advantage of whatever benefits may accrue from the long-term contract with the knowledge they have an option to avoid their contractual obligations and commitments through the device of a petition for an election."

Things Quiet in China, Say 2 Americans

By CONRAD FINK

HONG KONG (AP) — Two Americans arrived from Red China today and reported complete quiet on the Communist side of the border across which thousands of Chinese refugees have swarmed in recent weeks.

Mary Downey and her son William of New Britain, Conn., came from Peiping where they had visited Mrs. Downey's other son, John. He has spent 10 years in a Red Chinese jail serving a life sentence on spy charges.

William Downey said they saw no sign of any refugees during the 95-mile train ride from Canton to Hong Kong. Thousands of refugees rode the train to the frontier between May 1, and last Friday when Communist guards tightened border control.

"Everything looked normal to me," William said. He added that the train they rode was not crowded.

Downey said during his 1,200-mile, 13-day trip he saw no evidence of starvation or political unrest that might have touched off the refugee exodus.

He said Peiping's residents appeared adequately fed and clothed. The refugee flight caused no political disturbance that he could discern.

"No one looked shabby in Peiping," he said. "They are not dressed as stylish as in a large Western city but no one is in rags and tatters."

Downey said there was no immediate prospect of John Downey being released, but that he had appeared in good spirits. He requested only that he be sent more magazines.

"He looked very well," said Mrs. Downey, who has made four trips since 1958 to see John, who the U.S. government maintains was convicted of trumped-up charges.

Downey, an Army civilian employee, disappeared during the Korean War on what the Army said was a routine flight from Seoul to Japan.

The Peiping government charged that Downey and Richard Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., were shot down Nov. 29, 1952, while flying over Manchuria to drop supplies to anti-Communist agents. Fecteau was sentenced to 20 years.

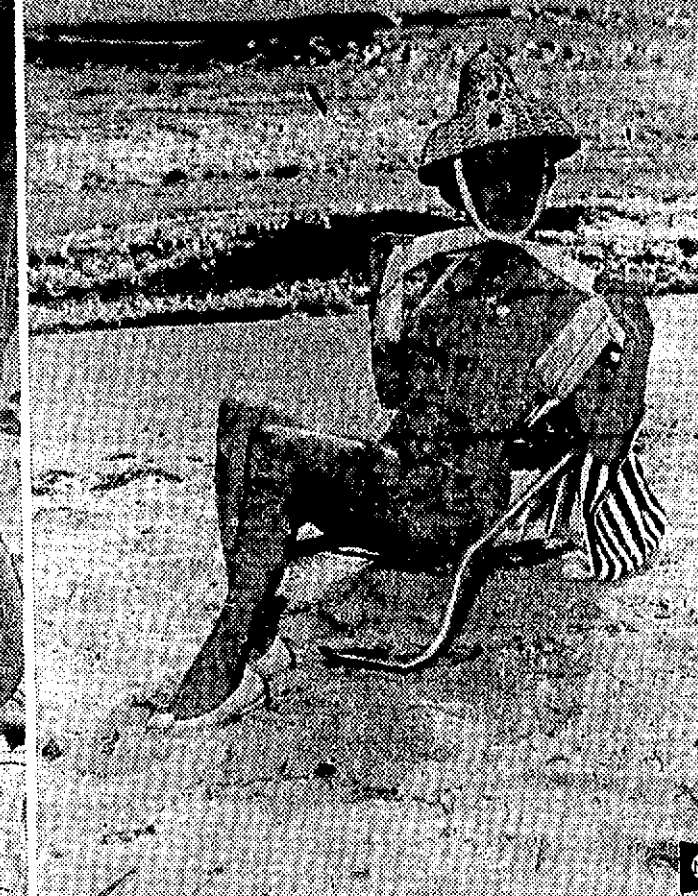

That the Justice Department turn over its FBI report on Marshall's death to the grand jury.

The demand was made by Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, who said "we are in a situation where we have to drag from them the report of his activities as if we were pulling teeth."

A Houston pathologist has said Marshall's death appeared to be murder although he did not completely rule out suicide, which was the official verdict in the death a year ago.

The 'Circle' Renewed for Another Year

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — "Circle Theatre," one of television's hardiest perennials, has been renewed for an eighth season starting next fall. One reason for its continued existence is an inexhaustible source of material from life itself.

Circle's specialty is entertainment called "dramatized documentary," which means that the situations are real (and sometimes the names of the characters are also) but the writers have dramatic license to telescope time, add fictitious characters, and, sometimes, dream up a windup to a situation that, in actuality, wanders along to an inconclusive end.

In the past seven years, producer Robert Costello and his staff have turned out bi-weekly programs on CBS that have ranged from stories of crime and detection on one hand to a story about the successful treatment of cancer on the other.

Sometimes, the drama has been built around a fictional situation (that is a composite of many real stories). When, for instance, the program concerned Communist espionage in the United States, the plot was pure fiction, but the narrator broke in from time to time with accounts of a real spy case and a real spy.

"Sometimes we create one or two characters and use them to reflect the attitude of a whole community," Costello explained. "Other times we stick close to the facts. And on still other occasions, we create a fictitious story that is typical of many."

The program is free to work in any area, although it often concerns itself with themes of built-in dramatic appeal.

"We hold meetings to decide what themes to tackle," Costello said, "and, generally, what comes out are subjects that interest us as individuals."

Only Woman for Soldiers in Home

By JOY MILLER

AP Women's Editor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mona Schatz watches television alone in the room where Abraham Lincoln drafted the Emancipation Proclamation.

She sunbathes on the same veranda where the Civil War president sat on summer evenings and gazed pensively across the miles to the White House in its steamy mosquito-infested swamp.

When she feels like a game of poker or pinocle she crosses her well-kept lawn studded with four canyons to towering Scot Building, where a game is nearly always in progress in the basement card room of the dormitory-messhall.

There Mona pulls up a chair, parks her big straw handbag on the floor and joins in the bidding with the boys.

Mona Schatz, 51, a WAAP (Women's Auxiliary Air Force) in World War II, is the only active woman resident among 2,200 men in the National Soldiers' Home.

"It's a paradise," she calls her unusual life. "This is the best home I've ever had. If I was a millionaire I couldn't live any nicer than I am right now. It's like a country club."

She shakes her short, straight, auburn hair, held back with a ribbon, and said earnestly: "I consider myself the luckiest girl in the world to be here, considering I can't be at home."

Home is Franklin Square, Long Island, where several of her four brothers and four sisters still live. She visits them two or three times a year.

Technically, Mona isn't the only woman resident of the home. But of the others—three WACs—Norma Denaux and Erma Gorman are hospitalized patients. Regina Jones, the first woman to arrive four years ago, is on indefinite leave.

Consequently Mona is the only woman to eat in the regular mess hall with the men, attend the four movies a week shown at the home, pile in the big bus along with the fellows for sightseeing tours or the Senators' home baseball games.

Gen. W.H. Haislip, the home's governor, explains that to get into the home a regular Army or Air Force man or woman must have 20 years in service, or have been disabled in line of duty, or have wartime service and a physical condition that prevents making a living.

The 300-acre home, on the site of Washington's first park, doesn't cost the taxpayer a cent. It's maintained by small deductions taken from the regulars' pay since about 1850.

Mona, who served nearly 2½ years stateside during the war, finished nurses' training after leaving service, but a bad back condition sent her first to a VA hospital and then to the home.

She lives alone in the women's side of the Anderson Cottage, which boasts a plaque: "Summer House President Lincoln, 1862, 1863 and 1864."

She has her own room fitted with a hospital bed to ease her back, and her own green tile bath. The women's living room, with its red leather and chrome furniture and television set, is all hers too.

Can This Be Love?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: How can you tell when you're in love? Sometimes I think I hate the boy to which I was engaged. Other times, the very sight of him leaves me weak in the knees. But no matter whether I'm mad enough to shake him, or loving him so much it hurts, he's always in my thoughts.

We're 19 and have gone together two years. He is of my faith—we attend church together every Sunday and his tastes are mine. But in temperament we are as opposites.

I'm high-strung, volatile and either up in the clouds or down in the depths.

He is calm, phlegmatic and very normal in all he does and thinks. From the time he was a small boy he has known just where he was going; two years college than one and a half years training in the Navy as an air pilot. He has always dreamed of being a flyer and can't conceive of choosing another career. Once through training he plans to marry me, but first he must be established in life.

I agree that a couple should plan for marriage, have money in the bank, and so on. But, if they really love one another, four and a half years seems a mighty long time to wait—as we are doing. He repeats that he does not intend to rush into marriage.

Dear Helen: Is there such a thing as babying your husband too much? I ask that question after 30 years of marriage to the same man—one as kind as kind can be. I've nursed him in sickness and cared for him just as devotedly in health; put out his slippers when he came home, cooked his favorite dishes, turned down his bed at night, seen that he got his daily pills, had the best clothes—just plain spoiled him and loved it.

Now I'm beginning to fear I've spoiled him. My face, while still young, has such a yen for those wild

Truthfully I have no desire to marry now but am sure I shall in another year or two. Am I crossing bridges before I come to them?

Three weeks ago I broke our engagement, thinking this would be a challenge but nothing has changed. We go out just as much as neither of us dates anyone else. Can this be love? —Bewildered

Dear Bewildered: If it were love in the mature sense, the boy's friend's happiness would be your first concern; therefore you were wise to break the engagement. Enjoy life as it comes and don't push your fate. But if you can reconcile yourself to the fact that this is a hare and tortoise situation and slow down to the boy's pace, you two will probably marry since the tortoise usually gets where he is going.

Inasmuch as his plans were long range, he shouldn't have talked marriage, much less become engaged, until ready to make good. Be as deliberate as he.

Dear Helen: Is there such a thing as babying your husband too much? I ask that question after 30 years of marriage to the same man—one as kind as kind can be. I've nursed him in sickness and cared for him just as devotedly in health; put out his slippers when he came home, cooked his favorite dishes, turned down his bed at night, seen that he got his daily pills, had the best clothes—just plain spoiled him and loved it.

Now I'm beginning to fear I've spoiled him. My face, while still young, has such a yen for those wild pretty (so they say) begins to show tiny wrinkles around the eyes and mouth and my figure, though attractive, is on the plump side. Would my husband think I baby him out of fear of losing him? —Old Hat.

Dear Old Hat: Since I baby my husband shamelessly, I asked him what he thought. "The more a wife babies her husband, the more he'll love her. Coddling gives him a sense of security," he declared, warming up to the theme. "No matter how hard a day at the office, he knows everything will be all right once he gets home. A wife's loving care makes the home a sanctuary. Such devotion inspires a deep feeling between a man and woman which grows, not lessens with the years. Beauty may fade, but a love like that won't." I agree with my husband. Keep on babying your man and quit worrying.

Dear Helen: Every now and then my girl wants to take in a whop-la party where the kids act like crazy. When I object she calls me old-fashioned. Our friends think I should go along, if only to protect her. I feel that we can have fun without these extremes. Besides, if a man goes against his better judgment, he's likely to land in the gutter with the girl. Right? Or do such men exist only in Kipling's poems? —Old-Fashioned Marlo

Dear Old-Fashioned Marlo: As a rule it's the other way around. It's the woman who are the fools and when they fall, fall hard because of some man. Perhaps your girl breaks loose out of sheer boredom. Try to give her a real whirl once in awhile; go dancing, take in a show or try out a new restaurant. Cultivate the party spirit yourself and she won't overdo it. My face, while still young, has such a yen for those wild

CIVIL DOCKET
Prescott Hardware Co. vs Fred Williams, Hope Brick Works Garnishee. Action on account for $89.00. Judgment for plaintiff for $89.00; Garnishee dismissed.
The authorities here have concluded that young Armstrong committed suicide or hanged himself by accident.
Shortly after midnight March 31, his parents, returning to their Coronado home from a visit across the border to Tijuana, Mexico, found him hanging dead from a beam in their bedroom.
The father, a retired Army officer, member of the John Birch Society and a candidate for election to the San Diego County Republican Central Committee, declared his son had been murdered. He expressed belief it had been done "by Communists to terrorize right-wing political elements in this area."

Young Armstrong had been a member of a right-wing student group at State College, and editor of the group's publication, called "Evolve."
Dist. Atty. Don Keller assigned 10 of his own investigators to the case, and enlisted the aid of Ray Pinker, an investigator for the Los Angeles police department.
Keller concluded, at the end of a month-long investigation: "That decedent, Newton E. Armstrong Jr., came to his death by aspiration due to hanging; "That no other person or persons were present at the time and place of death, or participated in the means of death."

His report accepted the finding of Pinker, the Los Angeles police expert, that:
"All available scientific evidence indicates the deceased came to his death as the result of hanging by his own hands."
Coroner Robert Creason had reached the same conclusion earlier, and no inquest was held. The district attorney's report closed the case.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the thoughtfulness, food, flowers, cards, and prayers at the time of the loss of our loved one, Nath Thomas.

Mrs. Nath Thomas and Children

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown to our family in the loss of our wife and mother and for the beautiful floral offerings.

The Oad Beckham Family

warm in Chicago ... "What?" The word snapped at me. "Okapi Club," I said, "Johnny Toco. Or should we leave your family out of it?" "You got a big mouth!" "Do we do business? Or do I turn myself in to the police along with the packet and really start talking?" "Packet was another Hannibal word. It wouldn't lie us down regardless of what I was supposed to have."

"You bring the stuff here and we'll talk business." "I laughed at him. "I have one interest in this world," I want Carla DiMucci. I want her tonight, and I want her on my terms. Now you listen and listen carefully. Because I'm not going to repeat myself and if anything happens to Carla except what I want to happen to her you're dead." Profak sighed, but he didn't speak.

I said, "There's a bridge path through Encanto Park. You can get on it on foot off West Sanome. You'll have to walk about half a mile to reach the overpass that takes the path across Concho Ravine. I'll be at the bridge to make the exchange. When you reach the bridge let Carla walk across it from your side. I'll come from the other. When she passes the middle of the bridge, I'll come on across and give you the packet."

"I don't like it," Anthony said slowly. "You've got no choice," I told him. "When you get the packet I'll be on your side of the bridge. That makes me an idiot, but Carla will be away from you."

Early Limits Cleveland to Only 3 Hits

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tired? Not 42-year-old Early Wynn, who began his career in 1939, and 22 seasons, 51 games and 4,301 innings later is cranking his durable right arm toward the 300-victory circle reached by only 13 major league pitchers.

Coming back from a sore arm that sidelined him in the 1961 campaign, Wynn has returned to the firing line for the Chicago White Sox Monday night he came through with his best effort of the season — a three-hit job that blanked Cleveland 2-0.

It was the 25th triumph of a distinguished career for Wynn, on record as the oldest active player in the majors. The victory evened his record for the year at 3-3 and left him only five shy of that coveted 300 mark.

Wynn retired 17 consecutive batters at one stretch, did not walk a man and faced only 29 men—just two over the minimum, while posting his first shutout since he stopped the same Indians on Sept. 23, 1960. That gave him a career total of 47, tops among active American League hurlers.

The loss dropped the Indians into a tie for first place with the New York Yankees, who were rained out at Kansas City. Jim Bunning allowed only three hits in Detroit's 5-1 decision over Baltimore. Earl Wilson and Mike Fornieles of Boston combined for a three-hitter that shut out Minnesota 3-0 and the Los Angeles Angels beat Washington 6-4.

In the National League, Cincinnati ran its winning streak to five games by whipping Houston 9-6. Pittsburgh defeated St. Louis 3-1 and the Chicago Cubs edged Milwaukee 2-1. The other clubs were not scheduled.

Wynn's 25th ended the amazing pitching string put together by Cleveland's 34-year-old ace, Dick Donovan. The veteran right hander, acquired from Washington in the trade that sent Jimmy Piersall to the Senators, had won eight previous starts.

Wynn also drove in one of the White Sox runs, knocking in Mike Hershberger with a seventh-inning single. Chicago's first run came in the fourth on a single by Jim Landis and Floyd Robinson's double.

Bunning (5-2), accused of gassing the ball with his belt buckle in his last start against the Orioles, blanked Baltimore until Russ Snyder led off the ninth with a homer. Rocky Colavito accounted for the first Tiger run with a double in the first inning, then clinched it with a two-run homer in the fifth. Chico Fernandez also connected off loser Milt Pappas (6-3) with a man on in the same inning.

Wilson (2-1) limited the Twins to two hits before he ran into con-

McMath Says Fear Forced Out Melton

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Sid McMath, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, charged Monday night that Marvin Melton of Jonesboro was forced from the race through fear.

"It is tragic when a man of this caliber can be forced out of this race through fear," McMath told a women's meeting of the McMath for Governor Committee of Sebastian County.

McMath said there are some persons in Arkansas who fear the free ballot. "They have tried to restrict the improvements in election procedure and even to take away some of the freedom that we now have," he told his supporters.

McMath charged further that it is common knowledge that "fear and intimidation have been exerted on welfare recipients" in Arkansas.

He said that the incumbent Gov. Orval E. Faubus has implied that if the present administration were not in office such recipients would lose some of their benefits.

"As a matter of fact, we know trouble in the eighth, walked two men and was lifted in favor of Fornieles. Fornieles got Vic Power to ground into an inning-ending double play and allowed a harmless single in the ninth.

Trailing 4-2, the Angels came up with four in the eighth to whip the Senators and Ray Riplemeier (0-1). Steve Bilko's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded scored one run, a pinch-hit single with the bases jammed by Tom Burgess sent the Angels ahead 5-4 and a balk by Riplemeier wrapped it up.

Rosy Audit by Accountant Is Missing

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A private accountant who submitted a rosy audit of Billie Sol Estes' finances destroyed his working papers after a call from someone in Estes' organization, an Agriculture Department official said today.

The statement of net worth was presented to the government in January, 1961 when the Agriculture Department proposed to increase from $700,000 to $1 million the bond Estes had to put up to store U.S. grain valued at $50 million.

The agriculture official, S. R. Smith, administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, said the audit put Estes' net worth at $13.7 million — more than the amount required to keep the bond at the lower level. He said the audit was made by Winn P. Jackson, a certified public accountant associated with a Texas firm.

Jackson has conceded he did not make an adequate audit of Estes' records before submitting the report, Smith said in testimony prepared for the House Government Operations subcommittee.

Estes, now under indictment for fraud, has declared he is bankrupt.

One aim of the investigations into Estes' many and complex operations is to learn whether Estes' jerry-built business empire was constructed on a foundation of government influence.

The 37-year-old Texan's dealings are being investigated by the FBI, four grand juries, the Internal Revenue Service, the Agriculture Department and two congressional committees.

A grand jury in Franklin, Tex., looking into the death of Texas agriculture official Henry Marshall, accepted Monday a curtailed government report on Estes' dealings in cotton allotments.

The government filed a motion to quash a subpoena demanding officials provide the full 175-page report.

Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson countered with a demand that the Justice Department turn over FBI reports on the death of Marshall, who was shot five times last June. Marshall had been investigating Estes' cotton operations. His death was first ruled suicide but last week an autopsy on his remains indicated a likelihood of murder.

Smith, first witness scheduled to be called today by the House group which began its hearings into the Estes case, said the Agriculture Marketing Service began an investigation of Estes' finances in September, 1961 as a result of "rumors concerning Mr. Estes' operations."

He said the department sought to see the working papers of Jack-

U. S. Proposes Launching Site

GENEVA (AP) — The United States today proposed establishment of an international launching site for space research near the equator.

The proposal was made by U.S. Delegate Homer Newell, director of space sciences of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, at the first meeting of a subcommittee of a new United Nations committee on the peaceful uses of outer space.

Newell told the 28-nation committee there was a need for a rocket range somewhere near the equator to supplement similar ranges already operating. This could be a good starting point for international cooperation in space research, he said.

There was no discussion of the proposal at the brief opening meeting, which elected David F. Martyn, head of Australia's national committee on space research, as chairman of the four-week session.

son, who had prepared the net worth statement on Estes.

Smith said that A. B. Foster Jr., Estes' general manager, twice promised to obtain the necessary information but failed to do so.

The investigation was not pressed and it still was pending in the Dallas office of the Internal Audit Division when Estes was arrested March 29, he said.

On April 4—one day before Estes was indicted—it was learned that Jackson had destroyed his working papers, said Smith.

When an investigator was sent to Jackson's office, Smith said, "Jackson acknowledged that he had destroyed the working papers after a call from an unnamed person in the Estes organization, and that he had not made an adequate audit of Mr. Estes' financial records prior to submitting his report."

Jay, Haddix Pitch But They Also Bat Well

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joey Jay and Harvey Haddix are paid their handsome salaries to pitch. But the big right-hander and the slender southpaw aren't exactly helpless in the batter's box.

Both proved that Monday night in pacing their National League clubs to victory.

Jay banged a homer and two singles and drove across four runs as Cincinnati strengthened its hold on third place by winning its fifth in a row, 9-6 over Houston.

Haddix threw a six-hitter and led Pittsburgh's offensive with three hits in the Pirates' 3-1 decision over St. Louis. The result left the Bucs, who've taken six of their last nine, just a half game back of the fourth-place Cardinals.

In the league's only other game, Glen Hobbie of the Chicago Cubs ended a personal 10-game losing string, downing Warren Spahn and the Milwaukee Braves 2-1. Other NL clubs were not scheduled.

In the American League, Chicago blanked Cleveland 2-0 and dropped the Indians into a tie for first with the New York Yankees, whose game at Kansas City was rained out; Boston shut out Minnesota 3-0; Detroit beat Baltimore 5-1; and Los Angeles trimmed Washington 6-4.

The Reds jumped off early in winning the 13th of their last 16 starts. They rapped Dick Farrell for six hits and four runs in the first two innings, then Jay belted a two-run single off John Anderson in the third, making it 6-0. Cincinnati iced it in the fifth by tagging Bob Tiefenauer for three runs in the fifth, the final two riding in on Jay's homer.

Jay, who has won four of his last five decisions for a 7-4 record, sailed by the Colts until the ninth, when they racked him for six hits and five runs. Roman Mejias fired Houston's last shot—a three-run homer.

Haddix pitched his first complete game since last August and keyed both of Pittsburgh's scoring innings against the faltering Cards, who have slumped from second place to fourth in the past week.

The Pirate lefty tripled in the fifth against loser, Ernie Broglio, and counted the game's first run on a fielder's choice. Then with the score at 1-1 in the bottom of the seventh, Haddix led off with a single and eventually came in with the clincher on Dick Groat's single.

Hobbie was 0-6 this season, 0-10 from last July and 0-9 against Milwaukee before besting Spahn and the Braves with his neat four-hitter. The Cubs, also limited to four hits by Spahn, produced two runs in the fourth inning on a walk, Ron Santo's double, a sacrifice fly and Andre Rodgers' single.

Spahn, 5-5 this season and with a career victory total of 314, failed to cast his usual spell against the Cubs. The great left-hander now is 41-19 vs. Chicago.

Aging Archie Draws With Pastrano

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Archie Moore, who has had more than his share of strange experiences in his quarters of a century as a boxer, today reviewed with some chagrin the controversial draw he received in a 10-round match with Willie Pastrano Monday night.

Said Archie, who appeared to have won a decisive victory over an opponent at least 20 years his junior: "This will look good in his record book when I am retired—and old."

The Moore-Pastrano 10-rounder went about as expected, except for the split draw decision.

Old Archie, 20½ pounds of bulk and determination, stalked the 185-pound Pastrano about the ring from bell to bell. Willie jabbed, ducked, dodged and retreated.

At the final bell Pastrano stood tired in his corner. Archie, beamed, grinned, waved to friends and suddenly broke into a spirited exhibition of shadow boxing.

Then came the official scoring. Judges Lee Grossman and Dick Young scored it even, 5-5 points. Referee Tommy Hart had it 5-4, Moore.

A consensus of boxing writers favored Moore, with no reservations. The Associated Press scored it 8-2 for Moore.
